COMPLETELY RENOVATED CABIN AND GROUNDS.

This 20-acre jewel in the Prescott National Forest has been part of the Diocese of Phoenix for 45 years. In its beginnings, it served as a summer camp for the Franciscans of the Santa Fe Province. In 2012, Saint Thomas Aquinas Catholic Parish purchased the property and has been renovating the cabin and improving the grounds until the camp's reopening in 2014. In addition to a completely renovated cabin, outside you'll find a new volleyball court, large fire pit, softball diamond, walking trails, and even room for tent camping.

AREA WILDLIFE

The wildlife in the area is incredible. There are deer, bobcats, javelinas, mountain lions, wild turkeys, coyotes and elk. You may also see eagles soaring above the tops of the pine trees.

CAMP ACTIVITIES

Whether you've come to the camp for a spiritual retreat or a family reunion, you'll want to experience what the outside has to offer. There are walking trails perfect for appreciating what nature has to offer. There is a large fire pit for gathering around and sharing stories and roasting smores. You will also find a volleyball court close by and a softball diamond. There is even a designated area for tent camping.

PRESCOTT ATTRACTIONS

The area of Prescott offers lots of opportunities for activities you cannot find on the campgrounds. Less than two miles from the camp is Goldwater Lake Park where there is fishing, boating, and family fun like volleyball and playgrounds. There are also picnic ramadas with grills.

Prescott also offers golf courses, riding stables, the Heritage Park Zoo, and The Highlands Center for Natural History.

If you are looking for a local swimming hole, Wolf Creek is the place, but water depth depends on the time of year and amount of rainfall.
